

The witness is recalled and duly sworn on 14.07.2025

Further Cross Examination by Sri ANS the learned counsel for the defendant:

It is true that the E-way bills mentioned in schedule A of the plaint would only show that the goods were dispatched, but those documents do not show that the concerned goods were delivered to the defendant. It is true that I have produced invoices raised in the year 2018 and 2019. It is true that all those invoices are raised during the life time of my father. It is true that at that time I was not the proprietor of the plaintiff firm nor I was not doing business in the name of the plaintiff firm. It is true that I am not have personal knowledge of the transaction taken place during the life time of my father. I have no document to show that after the death of my father the concerned invoices are assigned to me.

It is false to say that there are no seal and signature of the defendant in non of the documents at Ex P-4 to P-23. It is true that there are no seal and signature of the defendant in Ex P-4 to P-6. It is false to say that the signature found in Ex P-7 is not the signature of the defendant. It is true that Ex P-7 does not have the seal of the defendant. It is false to say that in the invoices at Ex P-8 to P-23 there are no seal and signature of the defendant. But in some of those invoices there is signature of the defendant.

It is true that the IT returns at Ex P-30 is standing in the name of my father. It is false to say that the statements of accounts produced at Ex P-26 to P-29 are falsely prepared at my whims and fancies. It is false to say that I have not produced any document to show that I availed loans from different financial institutions and I am liable to pay the amount of Rs.2,81,02,192/- to the creditors. It is false to say that as I was not the proprietor of the plaintiff firm at the time of the alleged transactions, I am not entitled to the amount from the defendant as claimed in the suit. It is false to say that on the basis of false documents I have filed false suit only to harass the defendant.
