

ORDERS ON IA NO.I

On perusal of the office note, no caveat is pending.

Perused the plaint averments, I.A. No.I, annexed affidavit, other materials on record and heard the learned Counsel for plaintiff.

On perusal of the materials on record, it is evident that plaintiff has filed this suit against the defendants for the relief of permanent injunction.

After perusal of the plaint and materials on record, it prima facie appears that the plaintiff has got a case for trial. Further, it is too premature to disbelieve the apprehension of the plaintiff as pleaded in the I.A. No. I.

In the circumstances, it is just and necessary that the notice on I.A. No. I has to be dispensed with and some interim order has to be passed, otherwise, the purpose of filing the suit may not serve for the plaintiff. Hence, issue ad-interim ex-parte temporary injunction against the defendants till the next date of hearing.

The plaintiff has to comply Order XXXIX Rule 3 of C.P.C, if not, the T.I. Order will be vacated automatically. Further, the Office is directed to issue this Order only after furnishing the necessary process fee, requisite copies of the plaint and list of documents by the Counsel for plaintiff.

On compliance, issue temporary injunction, emergent notice on I.A.No. I and suit summons to the defendants
