Sh. Naval Sehgal, Advocate for the defendants no. 1 to 4
Sh. Manjit Kumar Jain, Advocate for defendant no.9
Sh. Anil Kalia, Advocate for defendant no. 7
Defendants no.5 and 8 exparte vide order dated 08.11.2017
Defendant no.6 exparte vide order dated 16.10.2017

Heard. Parties to the suit have reached over a written compromise. Statement of plaintiffs and defendant no. 2 to 4 and defendant no.7 were recorded in token of written settlement/compromise which is Ex.C1. The parties have mutually settled the dispute inter se by means of written settlement and have undertaken to be bound by the terms and conditions recorded in the written settlement. Therefore as the parties are not at issue accordingly there is no necessity of evidence and by invocation of the provisions u/o 15 rule 2 CPC a decree in view of the terms and conditions of the written compromise Ex. C1 is hereby passed in the favour of the plaintiffs. The suit of the plaintiff accordingly stands decreed in view of the terms and conditions of the written compromise. Let the terms and conditions of the written compromise be read in conjunction with the decree passed today. Decree sheet be drawn separately. File be consigned to the Judicial Record Room, Jalandhar.
