

OS 111/2026

The Plaintiffs and Defendants are present and filed joint compromise petition U/s 89 of CPC. The suit is one for perpetual injunction. The parties have furnished their Aadhar Cards.

Both the parties have affixed their signatures and thumb impression on order sheet. The contents of the compromise petition is read over and explained to the parties. The Plaintiffs and Defendants submit that they have voluntarily compromised the case. The settlement arrived at between the parties is lawful and not opposed to public policy. Further the counsel for both the parties submits that there is no suit pending between the parties in respect of suit schedule property. Thus the following order passed.

ORDER

The compromise petition filed by the parties is allowed.

Further it is clarified that the compromise is binding only to the parties to the suit.

Office is directed to draw decree as per compromise petition.

06-06-2026.

I Addl. CJ and JMFC, Chikodi.