ORDER

Shri.DSK filed an application U/O IX Rule 7 R/W Sec.151 of CPC at IA No.1 praying to set aside ex-parte order passed against Defendant No.1 to 9 along with power.

Plaintiff counsel submits no objection to IA No.1.

Heard and perused the application and records. Satisfied. If ex-parte order is set aside it will not cause any loss or injury to the Plaintiff. Hence, IA No.1 is allowed and ex-parte order passed against Defendant No.1 to 9 is set aside and permitted to proceed with the case.

Prl.Sr.C.J,Gokak.

Plaintiff and defendants No.1 to 9 are present. They have furnished the copies of their Aadhaar Cards. I have perused the same and satisfied.

Both parties have filed joint compromise petition U/O XXIII Rule 3 of CPC.

The contents of the compromise petition are read-over to the both parties in Kannada language known to them. They accepted the contents of the compromise petition are all true and correct. They voluntarily entered into compromise without any force.

The contents of the compromise petition are not oppose to law and public policy and on enquiry it is found that the compromise is voluntarily entered in between both the parties. Hence, the compromise is accepted.

Office is directed to draw Final Decree as per the terms and conditions of the compromise petition. and the map annexed to the compromise petition shall be part and parcel of the compromise decree.

In the compromise petition there is no any over-writings are made or any matter is substituted or deleted. In page No.5 date 24 is written by pen.

Further the plaintiff and defendant No. 1 to 9 submitted that, as per the compromised entered in between them they are in possessions their respective shares and their they will not file any petition for recovery of their shares.
