Prl.Sr.C.J,Gokak.

Plaintiff Bank Manager and Defendant No.1 and 2 are present. Defendants have furnished the copies of their Aadhaar Cards. I have perused the same and satisfied.

Both parties have filed joint compromise petition U/O XXIII Rule 3 of CPC.

The contents of the compromise petition are read-over to the both parties in Kannada language known to them. They accepted the contents of the compromise petition are all true and correct. They voluntarily entered into compromise without any force.

The contents of the compromise petition are not oppose to law and public policy and on enquiry it is found that the compromise is voluntarily entered in between both the parties. Hence, the compromise is accepted.

Office is directed to draw Decree as per the terms and conditions of the compromise petition.

Counsel for the Plaintiff filed memo praying to refund the court fee.

In view of compromise entered in between the parties office is directed to refund the court fee to the plaintiff in accordance with law.

In the compromise petition at page No.2 line No.4 “Rs.1,25,000/-” is written by pen and there is no any over-writings are made or any matter is substituted or deleted.
