

Present: Sh. A.K. Siwach, APP for the State

Notice issued to complainant received back served through her grand-daughter. However, despite the case being called several times since morning none appeared on her behalf. Hence, this Court is left with no other option except to proceed further in accordance with law.

Perusal of the case file reveals that the present FIR was got registered for commission of offence punishable under section 363, 366 of IPC. When the cancellation report is further perused, it is reveals that statement of victim Sarla @ Navin under section 164 Cr.PC was got recorded wherein she stated that she got married with Subhash with her own free will and no legal action was taken against him.

In view of the statement suffered by the victim under section 164 Cr.PC, it is clear that no offence whatsoever was committed against her and hence, there is no hesitation in accepting the cancellation report filed in the matter. Accordingly, the cancellation report hereby stands accepted. File be sent to Judicial Record Room.
