

CC 825/2025

The complainant and the accused are present.

The advocate for the complainant and the accused are present.

The parties pray to refer the case to the Lok adalat.

The complainant and the accused are present.

The advocate for the complainant and the accused are present.

The parties are conciliated.

The complainant and the accused have come to a settlement .

The joint memo is filed in the aforesaid terms.

The same is read over, explained to both the parties and they have understood the same and have put their signatures after fully understanding the consequence and the same is accepted

The case of the complainant and the accused is closed as settled.

Sd/-
CJ & JMFC, Hukkeri