

Case advanced.

Sri KNS Advocate is present and filed vakalath for the defendants No.1 and 2.

Learned counsel for the plaintiffs files memo to not press the suit against the defendants No.3 and 4. In view of the memo, the suit against the defendants No.3 and 4 is dismissed as not pressed.

Plaintiffs, defendants No.1 and 2 and learned counsel for the plaintiff and defendants are present and they have filed compromise petition under Order 23 Rule 3 of CPC.

Perused the documents placed before the court.

The suit is one for partition and separate possession. All the parties have entered into compromise and the properties are allocated are equally bifurcated. The legitimate rights of the parties are averred in the petition. No properties are allotted to the minor.

Read over the terms of settlement between the parties and the parties have accepted its correctness and submitted that they have voluntarily entered into compromise and there is no compulsion. The terms of compromise are neither opposed to law nor any public policy and hence, this court finds no impediment in accepting the compromise petition, proceed to pass the following:

ORDER

The application filed by the both parties under Order 23 Rule 3 of CPC is hereby accepted.

The suit of the plaintiff is decreed in terms of compromise petition.

Office to draw final decree in terms of compromise petition.

Interlocutory applications pending for consideration, if any, are disposed off accordingly.

Ad-interim ex parte order dated 27.03.2026 is hereby vacated.

Civil Judge and JMFC, Kittur.