RESPONDENT :-

The State by the P.S.I.,
Ballari Rural Police Station,
Ballari.

(By Public Prosecutor, Ballari)

ORDER

This is a petition filed under Section 482 (1) of B.N.S.S. 2023 by the accused No.4 in Crime No.159/2026 of Rural police station, Ballari, seeking an order to relax the condition No.1 imposed in Crl. Misc.616/2026.

2. It is stated that, after this Hon'ble Court has passed the order in Crl. Misc.616/2026 directing him to surrender before the jurisdictional police within 5 days, another case was registered against him. Therefore, he could not surrender before the police. The reasons for not surrendering before the police is bonafide one and not intentional one. He is ready to abide by other conditions and hence, some more time may be granted to him to surrender before the police. Accordingly, prayed to allow the petition.

3. This petition is resisted by learned Public prosecutor by filing objection along with I.O. Report. It is stated that, intentionally the petitioner has violated the condition imposed by this Hon'ble High Court. Therefore, he is not entitled for any sympathy. Accordingly, prayed to reject the petition.

4. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Public Prosecutor.

5. The following points that arise for my consideration:

1. Whether it is necessary to allow the petition for granting some more time?

2. What order?

6. My answer to the above points are as under:

Point No.1: In the Affirmative.

Point No.2: As per final order, for the following ;

REASONS

7. Point No.1 :- I have perused the entire records. This Court has granted anticipatory bail in favour of petitioner as per order dated 22.6.2026, with a condition that he shall surrender before the police within 5 days for assisting the police to conduct investigation. But, it is also a fact that prior to this case, another case was registered against the petitioner and others in Crime No.131/2026. In that case also, this Court has granted anticipatory bail in favour of 15 persons as per order dated 11.6.2026. In that case also, same conditions are imposed by this court. But by that time, the time granted to the petitioner to surrender was lapsed. It appears that, there are bonafide reasons.

8. Since this Court has already exercised discretion to grant anticipatory bail, if this petition is disposed of by granting another four days time for his surrender before the police, it would meet the ends of justice. Accordingly, I answer the above point in the affirmative.

9. Point No.2 :- In the result, I proceed to pass the following :

ORDER

The petition filed under Section 482 (1) of B.N.S.S. 2023 by the petitioner/Accused No.4, is hereby allowed.

Time granted as per condition No.1 in Crl. Misc.616/2026 is relaxed.

Time till 12.7.2026 is granted to petitioner to surrender before the police for the purpose of assisting them to conduct investigation in accordance with law.

Other conditions imposed in the said order shall continue.
