Crime No.109/2026 of Kurugodu police station, for the offences punishable under Sections 115(2), 126(2), 189(2), 191(3), 191(2), 351(2), 74, 352 R/w Sec.190 of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (B.N.S.) 2023, seeking grant of anticipatory bail, in the event of their arrest.

2. It is stated that, the petitioners have not at all committed the alleged offences. They are innocents and law abiding citizens. It is stated that, a false case has been registered, by alleging that they have given harassment to the complainant. The alleged offence are not punishable with death or imprisonment for life. They are ready to co-operate for investigation. Accordingly, prayed to allow the petition.

3. This petition is resisted by the learned Public Prosecutor by filing the objections. It is stated that, the petitioners have actually abused the complainant and others in filthy language and assaulted and also gave life threat. They have not co-operated for investigation. Hence, they are not entitled for anticipatory bail. Accordingly, prayed to reject the petition.

4. Heard the learned counsel for petitioners and the learned Public Prosecutor.

5. The following points that arise for my consideration:

1. Whether petitioners have made out grounds for granting anticipatory bail?

2. What order?

6. My answer to the above points are as under:

Point No.1: In the affirmative.

Point No.2: As per final order, for the following ;

REASONS

7. Point No.1 :- a perusal of the complaint and other material they disclose that, some of the offences are non-bailable, but they are not punishable with death or imprisonment for life. The petitioners are permanent residents. But they have apprehension of arrest. Therefore,

I hold that by imposing some stringent conditions, the petitioners may be enlarged on anticipatory bail. Accordingly, I answer the above point in the Affirmative.

8. Point No.2 :- In the result, I proceed to pass the following :

ORDER

The petition filed by the petitioners/accused No.1 to 12 under Section 482 of B.N.S.S. 2023, is hereby allowed.
