

Complainant is present.

Ld. Advocate for the complainant files a withdrawn/ compromise petition with a prayer for permission to withdraw the complain against the accused person/s.

The complainant submits the dispute has been settled amicably between the parties and he/she also stating that he/she does not want to proceed further with the instant case.

Heard the Ld. Advocate.

Seen the petition, perused the case record, I find that there are sufficient reasons to withdraw the case.

Prayer of the complainant stands allowed.

Accordingly, the complainant is allowed to withdraw the case against the accused person/s.

Hence,

Ordered

That the accused person/s be discharge from this case.

Re-call process if any.
