

Orders on IA No.I filed U/o 39 R 1 & 2

Verified the IA No.I and the affidavit accompanying to the application. Verified the pleadings, documents, IA's and affidavits. This court is of the opinion that before passing any interim order on IA no.I filed U/Sec. 151 of CPC it is just and necessary to hear the other side is very much essential under the facts and circumstances of this case. Hence, the office is hereby directed to cause emergent notice on IA No.I to the opponents/respondents 1 to 5 along with copies of main petition, copy of application, copies of documents with list of documents with sufficient number of copies and requisite process if furnished by the petitioner.

Await process.

VI Addl. District & Session Judge,
Bengaluru Rural District, Bengaluru.

Orders on IA No.II filed U/Sec. 151 of CPC.

Verified the IA No.II and the affidavit accompanying to the application. Verified the pleadings, documents, IA's and affidavits. This court is of the opinion that the petitioner at this stage of the proceedings has made out prima facie grounds. If the order of stay has not been granted the very purpose of preferring of the present petition will be failed. Therefore, this court proceed to pass the following:

ORDER

It is hereby ordered that the execution and operation of the order dated 11.08.2023 passed in P & SC.No.25/2022 by this court is hereby stayed till the respondents/opponents no.1 to 5 to this application appeared before this court and filing of their objection to the main petition and objection to the present application.

The office is hereby directed to cause order of stay of execution and operation of the order dated 11.08.2023 in P& SC.No.25/2022 and issue notice on IA No.II to the opponents/respondents 1 to 5 along with copies of main petition, copy of application, IA No.II, copies of documents with list of documents with sufficient number of copies and requisite process if furnished by the petitioner.

For compliance of order by petitioner.

Await process by 19.06.2025.

VI Addl. District & Session Judge,
Bengaluru Rural District, Bengaluru.