

Petitioner Counsel files memo with endorsement with regard to service of notice to the respondent.

No representation on behalf of respondent though notice duly served on respondent, therefore proceeded further as respondent ex-parte/absent and matter set down for enquiry.

Mother of the petitioner examined as PW1 and documents marked as Ex.P-1 and 2.

Heard by petitioner counsel and perused the record.

Petitioner was said to have born on 24.05.2020, but her birth information not provided to the respondent due to inadvertently by her parents. Hence, the respondent issued non-availability certificate as he/she does not register the date of birth of petitioner in the concerned record. PW1 being mother of petitioner reiterated the said averments in her evidence. The said evidence does not challenged by respondent as he/she exparte. In the circumstance, no reason to disbelieve the oral and documentary evidence of PW1 and from the said evidence this court opines that petitioner proved that she was born on 24.05.2020 in the address as mentioned in the petition. Therefore, present petition filed by the petitioner U/s.13 (3) of Registration of Births and Deaths Act is hereby allowed and the respondent is hereby directed to register date of birth of petitioner as she born on 24.05.2020 along with other details as mentioned in the petition in the concerned register and issue birth certificate thereof by receiving prescribed fee if any.

Sd/-

Prl. Civil Judge & JMFC., Anekal.