. . . Defendants

This suit is filed by the plaintiff prays that the Hon'ble court be pleased to pass a decree in favour of the plaintiff and against the defendants granting permanent injunction restraining the defendants, their men, followers and fellowmen from ever in any way interfering with the possession and enjoyment of the plaint schedule properties by the plaintiff as a statutory tenant thereof and not to evict the plaintiff without due process of law, award costs of the suit and to pass such other relief or relief's to which the plaintiff is entitled under the circumstances of the case.

The suit is coming on this day for hearing before me on 19.02.2024 in the presence of Sri Nalla Ravi Prasad, Advocate for the plaintiff and the defendants remained ex parte having stood over for consideration till this day the Court delivered the following:

ORDER

The plaintiff is called present. The defendant is called absent. The learned counsel for the plaintiff filed a memo after obtaining the signature of the plaintiff thereon and submitted that both the parties settled the matter and therefore he requested the Court to dismiss the suit as 'not pressed' without costs. It may be noted here that the defendants came to be set ex parte vide docket order dated 21.11.2023.

Recording the said memo and the said submissions made by the learned counsel for the plaintiff and in the best interest of justice, this suit is dismissed as 'not pressed' without costs.
