

Perused plaint averments, I.A No.I & II.

IA No.I is filed by the plaintiff with a prayer to restrained the defendants or anybody claiming through them from interfering into the suit schedule property.

Admittedly the suit schedule property is an agricultural land. As per the contents of paragraph No.8 of the affidavit, the defendant No.1 herein had filed a suit O.S.No.683/2021 on the file of Senior Civil Judge & JMFC Devanahalli, in respect of the property involved in the present suit. Wherein the court has ordered to maintain status-quo in respect of the suit schedule property. Considering all these aspects, this court is of opinion that, it is just and necessary to hear the defendants before passing order on IA No.I.

IA No.II is filed by the plaintiff to restrained the defendants or anybody claiming through them from alienating the suit schedule property. As per the latest RTC for the year 2021-22, the suit schedule property is standing in the name of the plaintiff. Under such circumstances, the question of alienation of the suit schedule property by somebody else, does not arise at this juncture.

Hence issue summons and notice of IA No.I & II to the defendants if requisite PF & copies furnished.
