

CC 20/2011 Dt: 21.09.2021

Accused is present.

On perusal of order sheet, it appears that inspite of repeated NBW and proclamation, the accused remained absent. Further it appears that the matter is delayed for the absence of accused. Hence, this court is of the opinion that it is fit case to cancel the bail bond of the accused. Hence, bail bond of accused stands cancelled. Further today, accused neither file application for bail nor filed application for recall of his warrant. Therefore, in the absence any such applications, the warrant against the accused cannot be recalled. Hence, accused is sent to judicial custody, till 04.10.2021.
