.... Respondent

This petition is coming before me for final hearing on 10.10.2025 in the presence of Sri S. Syam Prasad, Advocate for Petitioner and of Sri K. Murali, Advocate for Respondent, upon perusing the material on record and the matter having stood over for consideration till this day, this Court made the following:-

ORDER

This is an application filed under section 10 (1)(X) of Divorce Act by Meda Anusha @ Mogadati Anusha and Meda Sekhar with a prayer for granting a decree of divorce dissolving their marriage dt.10.12.2010.

2. The case of the petitioner in brief is that the respondent is her husband and their marriage was performed on 10.12.2010 at C.S.I. Church, Muchinapalli Village of Reddigudem Mandal as per Christian Religious Tradition and their marriage was consummated. The petitioner joined with the respondent at his parent's house to lead happy marital life. During their lawful wedlock they blessed with two male children. The petitioner further submits that, the respondent harass her physically and mentally by suspecting her character and unable to bear the harassment made by the respondent the petitioner placed the matter before the elders. The attempts made by elders for reunion is failed. The petitioner bear the mental torture in the hands of the respondent for the sake of her family and her children and with a fond of hope that the respondent will change his attitude and become a good husband. They reside separately from 25.08.2023.

The respondent used to harass the petitioner both mentally and physically, the petitioner bared all his harassment with a hope that the respondent will mend his attitude in future, but in vain. The petitioner wants to lead marital life with the respondent and several mediation made by the petitioner were proved futile. The petitioner is suffering with mental agony due to the respondent's behaviour. The petitioner waited all these months with a fond hope that the respondent will mend her attitude and come back to the petitioner to lead happy marital life, but his dreams became futile. Hence the petition.

3. The present application is filed seeking grant of divorce by dissolving the marriage performed between the petitioner and the respondent on 10.12.2010 by dissolution of the marriage on the ground of desertion and cruelty.

4. The respondent filed a counter and denied all the allegations made by the petitioner in her petition.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and respondent. Perused the record.

6. The petitioner was examined as P.W1 in support of her case and Ex.P1 to Ex.P3 are marked by P.W1- Meda Anusha @ Mogadati Anusha. The brother of P.W1 was examined as P.W2 to support the case of P.W1. At the time of cross examination of P.W1 and P.W2 the respondent called absent and no representation on his behalf and cross examination is recorded as Nil.

7. The petitioner reiterated the contents of her chief affidavit. She submitted that the petitioner beat her in each and every trivial matter and used to harass her for want of additional dowry and she face cruelty in the hands of the respondent and that the respondent used to make threatens and unreasonable demands. P.W1 stated that respondent treated the petitioner with cruelty and there is no chance of re-union with the respondent.

8. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the respondent evinced no interest in leading marital life with the petitioner and relationship between them reached a point of no return. He further submitted that there is no chance of resumption of conjugal life between the parties and there is no collusion in filing this application. He sought for dissolving marriage between the petitioner and the respondent by decree of divorce.

9. The points for determination are;

1. Whether the marriage between the petitioner and the respondent performed on 10.12.2010 is liable to be dissolved on the grounds of desertion and cruelty on the part of the respondent ?

2. To what relief ?

Point No.1:

10. According to the section 10(1)(x) the marriage were also be dissolved on the ground that since the solemnization of marriage, the respondent has treated the petitioner with such cruelty and to cause reasonable apprehension in the mind of the petitioner that it would be harmful or injurious for the petitioner with the respondent.

11. Initially the respondent filed the counter and denied the allegations made by the petitioner in her petition. At the time of cross examination of P.W1 and P.W2 the respondent called absent and cross examination of P.W1 and P.W2 are recorded as Nil. When matter is posted for respondent side evidence, respondent called absent and no representation for respondent. Hence this Court treated as no evidence for respondent. Respondent also did not appear at the time of hearing. The evidence of P.W1 and P.W2 remained unchallenged and un-controverted. The evidence on record clearly shows that the respondent necked out the petitioner on 25.08.2023.

12. The contention of the petitioner remained unchallenged. The petitioner has sufficiently established the cruelty on the part of the respondent. The petitioner is entitled to the decree of Divorce by dissolving the marriage performed between them on 10.12.2010. The point is answered accordingly.

Point No.2:

13. In the result, this petition is allowed without costs. The marriage between the petitioner and the respondent performed on 10.12.2010 is hereby dissolved by way of decree of divorce.

Typed to my dictation by the Typist Cum Junior Assistant, corrected and pronounced by me in the open Court, on this the 10th day of November, 2025.
