respective counsels are present. The plaintiff and the defendants are advised to settle the matter amicably. Upon conciliation and negotiation, the parties agreed to settle their dispute in respect of the suit schedule properties. The parties were directed to reduce the terms of their compromise into writing in the form of a joint memo and file the same.

Kept by.

Case called out again at 1:42 P.M.

After due deliberation, the parties to the suit have agreed to compromise the above matter amicably amongst themselves and the plaintiffs and the defendants. have filed a joint memo containing the terms of their compromise along with photocopies of their identification cards.

All the parties to the suit have arrived at a settlement and submitted that they have agreed for settlement as per joint memo.

The contents of the joint memo is read over and explained to them in Kannada language known to them, it is satisfied that they have voluntarily filed this joint memo without force or coercion.

I have perused materials on record such as pleadings, joint memo and documents. In view of the submission made by the parties to the suit and the joint memo, if the joint memo is allowed, no prejudice or hardship would be caused to any of the parties. Hence, the Adalath
