

ORDERS

After hearing learned counsel for the plaintiffs and on perusal of the records prima facie it appears that, the claim of plaintiffs is based on inheritance and the sale deed. However the name of the defendant has been entered for the suit schedule property along with non suit land measuring 4 acres. Prima facie it appears that, the father of the plaintiffs had purchased the suit schedule properties, therefore I am of the opinion that the plaintiff have made out prima facie case for grant of temporary injunction order. If the notice of I.A.1 is issued then the very purpose of filing of this application would be defeated. For the ends of justice I proceed to pass the following:

ORDER

Pending disposal of I.A.No.1 filed by the plaintiffs U/o.XXXIX R.1 and 2 of CPC the defendant and all persons claiming through him is hereby restrained by order of ad-interim injunction from alienating the suit schedule properties in any manner in favour of anybody till his appearance.

The plaintiff shall comply with provisions of O.39 R.3(A) of CPC.

Office to issue exparte T.I order only after compliance is made and process fee with copies of pleadings are furnished.

Issue summons to defendant with notice of I.A.No.1 and T.I order. R/by 19.02.2024.
