

Mat. Suit No.1586 of 2024
CNR: WBSP01-007051-2024
J.O. CODE: WB01007

Order No. 8.
Dated 27.11.2025

Today is the date fixed for hearing of the petition dated 18.02.2025 along with written statement for setting aside the ex parte order.

Parties have filed hajira through Ld. Advocate.

Ld. Advocate for the respondent files another petition for condoning the delay of 40 days in filing written statement.

Ld. Lawyer for the petitioner raised formal objection.

Heard both sides.

Perused the materials-on-record.

Considered.

The ex parte order is vacated and the delay of 40 days is condoned.

Considering the fact that the Court was vacant for considerable period. Written statement is accepted.

To 13.01.2026 for Reconciliation.

Parties to remain present.

Later:-

Ld. Lawyer for the petitioner files a petition for reconciliation may take place over video conference. Ld. Lawyer for the respondent consents.

To date for reconciliation through Video Conference.

D/C by me.

Sd/- S. Ambastha
ADJ.

Sd/- S. Ambastha
11th Addl. District Judge,
South-24- prgs. Alipore.