

State Vs. Abdul Sattar

Present: Shri Pardeep Kumar, Advocate for applicant/accused Abdul Sattar.
Shri Akhil Chauhan, Ld. APP for the State.

Reply to the bail application has been filed by prosecution.
Same is taken on record.

Learned counsel for the applicant/accused has pleaded that accused is in custody since 02.12.2020 and FIR was lodged against an unknown person. Therefore, applicant/accused be granted concession of bail.

On the other hand, learned APP has vehemently opposed the bail application submitting that arrest of co-accused is pending and accused is habitual offender as already two more cases are pending against him bearing FIR No.251 and 324. While FIR No.251 is registered under Section 457,380 IPC, FIR No.324 is registered under Section 307,379,411,34,353,186 IPC and 11D PCA Act. As both these cases involve the offences of same nature as committed in the present case and in one of the case accused is even booked for offence under Section 307 IPC which is very serious offence.

Heard. Keeping in view these circumstance and keeping in view the fact that there are likely chances that he will commit the offence of same kind if he is released from jail, therefore, he cannot be released. Hence, bail application of accused Abdul Sattar is hereby dismissed.

To come up on the date already fixed i.e. 12.01.2021.
