

Case called out.

Accused No.1 by name Sri.Pathalingappa and Accused No.2 by name Sri.veeresh and CW-1 by name Sri.Dileep Kumar are present.

Sri.H.S.K. advocate for accused no.1 and 2 present.

Learned APP present.

Both the parties have filed joint application under section 359(1) of BNSS and submitted that the accused No.1 and 2 and complainant/CW-1 have settled their differences amicably. Perused the complaint and material available on record. The offences alleged against the accused persons that, they have committed offences punishable under section 303(2) of BNS. The said offence is compoundable in nature at the instance of the complainant. As such, this is a fit case for compounding the offense in view of amicable settlement arrived between the parties. This court ascertained the voluntariness of the complainant/CW-1 before accepting the application.

Therefore, Acting under section 359(1) of BNSS in view of the joint application filed by both the parties and on consent given by the learned APP, the application is allowed. The offences alleged under section 303(2) of BNS is permitted to be compounded. As a result the accused No.1 and 2 are hereby acquitted of the said charges. The bail bond and surety bond executed by the accused persons stands canceled.

Case is closed.

(Prasanna Kumar C.)
Prl. Civil Judge and Hosadurga.

JMFC,