ORDER

Case advanced.

The counsel for the respondent submitted that the respondent had given the surety to the accused No.4 on the file of SC No.118/2016 and due to remained absent of accused No.4 the surety notice was given and the separate Criminal Misc case has been registered.

Further the counsel contended that now the accused No.4 on the file of SC 118/2016 is submitting his presence on every hearing dates and therefore leniency may be given to the respondent of this case.

The record show that the respondent is a lady aged around 45 years and an agriculturist. By considering the age of respondent and by considering the profession of the respondent here at this stage it would show that it is appropriate to give the leniency to the respondent. Further this court observed that the accused No.4 is keeping his presence on hearing dates in the case stated supra.

Accordingly, by considering all the above, the leniency has been given to the respondent and petition is closed.
