

Back

Daily Status

In the Court of : Junior Civil Judge

Case No. : CC/0000035/2020

State of Telangana SHO PS Dandepally Vs Gattikonda Venkateshwar Rao

Date : 08-02-2020

Presence	: State of Telangana SHO PS Dandepally APP Gattikonda Venkateshwar Rao
Business	: Vide O.M.Dis.No.5745/2006, dated 30-10-2006 of Honble District and Sessions Court, Adilabad, the case was treated as LPC. Today the Complainant/injured/Nallaveera Satyanarayana is present and reported that he has already settled the matter with the accused outside of the court and he wants to withdraw the case against the accused and filed the petition U/Sec.20(1) of Legal Services Authority Act, 1987, thereby the matter LPC is restored to the original stage vide CC No.35/2020. In view of the Judgment cited in 2015 (1)ALD (Crl.)280 of Honble High Court of Judicature of Telangana and A.P. at Hyderabad that the offence U/s. 324 IPC is compoundable in nature after obtaining the permission from the court. Hence, the section is directed to refer the matter to Lok Adalath as he compromised outside of the court and the defacto complainant is ready to voluntarily withdraw (compromise) the case against the accused. At his request the case is referred to Lok Adalath. The complainant/Nallaveera Satyanarayana is present. A1 absent. As per the orders of Honble High Court of Kerala in Y.P.Bajju Vs. State of Kerala and others reported in 2008 Crl.L.J. 928, in the absence of the accused even NBW is pending against accused compromise can be recorded by the defacto complainant if he comes forward and reports that he compromise the case. In view of the orders above and in terms of compromise between both parties, the matter is settled amicably after discussion, negotiation and conciliation by the bench. Hence, compromise is recorded in terms of compromise, accused no.1 is acquitted U/Sec.320 (8) Cr.P.C. for the offence u/sec.324 IPC. The bail bonds of accused shall stands cancelled. No case property.
Nature of Disposal	: SETTLED BEFORE LOK ADALAT
Disposal Date	: 08-02-2020

Junior Civil Judge