O R D E R

1. The father of minor petitioner has filed this petition under Section 13(3) of Karnataka Registration of Birth and Death Act 1969 for entering minor petitioner's date of birth in the register maintained by the office of the respondent.

2. In the petition it is stated that, the minor petitioner by name D.Harsha Vardhan was born on 22.01.2008 in Bengaluru. The birth event of his was not entered in the register maintained by the respondent in their office. He needs birth certificate for documentation purpose. It is stated that his father submitted an application to respondent for issuing birth certificate for which respondent issued a non-availability certificate. For the reasons stated supra petitioner prays to allow the petition.

3. The notice was issued to the respondent and same was duly served but respondent remained absent before the court and placed exparte. Thereafter the case was posted for evidence. The minor petitioner is represented by his father has got examined himself as PW1 and in his oral evidence has reiterated petition averments and got marked Ex.P1 to Ex.P4.

4. Heard the arguments and perused the records.

5. The points that would arise for my consideration are;

Point No.1: Whether the petition is deserved to be allowed ?

Point No.2: What order?

6. My findings to the above points are as here under;

Point No.1: In the Affirmative.

Point No.2: As per the final order for the following:

R E A S O N S

7. Point No.1:- The minor petitioner's father has stated that, his minor son viz., D.Harsha Vardhan was born on 22.01.2008. The birth certificate is required for the sake of documentation. He approached the respondent for availing the birth certificate but respondent gave an endorsement that the event of birth of his son is not entered in the register and issued non-availability certificate at Ex.P1. Since the respondent placed exparte, the averments of the petition, evidence of PW1 and documentary evidence at Ex.P1 to Ex.P4 are remained unchallenged. Ex.P2 notarized copy of Study Certificate discloses that the date of birth of minor petitioner is 22.01.2008 and there are no grounds to disbelieve the case of the petitioner. The very object of the Karnataka Registration of Birth and Death Act 1969 is to enter the registration of births and deaths in the concerned register. Therefore, the point No.1 is answered in the Affirmative.

8. Point No. 2: In view of my findings to the point No.1, I proceed to pass the following;

O R D E R
