Business : Case called out. Both counsels are present. Plaintiff and the defendant No.1 to 3 are present. Both the counsels have submitted that, the parties have settled the matter outside the Court and both the plaintiff and the defendant No. 1 to 3 intend to file compromise petition under Order 23 Rule 3 of CPC., along with the Compromise petition signed by the parties and both the counsels is also furnished before the court. Both counsels have filed a memo furnishing the photocopy of the Aadhar cards of the plaintiff and the defendant No.1 to 3. This suit is filed by the plaintiff for the relief of Permanent Injunction. The plaintiff and the defendant No.1 to 3 have submitted that, they know the contents of the petition and also their willingness to compromise the case. Both the counsels have submitted that, the parties wish to compromise the matter. Hence, prayed to file the Compromise petition under Order 23 Rule 3 of CPC. Hence, I proceed to pass the following ORDERS ON COMPROMISE PETITION FILED UNDER ORDER 23 RULE 3 OF CPC This is a suit filed by the plaintiff against the defendant No.1 to 3 for the relief of Permanent Injunction in respect of the suit schedule property. The plaintiff and the defendant No.1 to 3 have filed the compromise petition under Order 23 Rule 3 of CPC. Heard both the sides. I have perused the petition. The contents of the petition are read over and explained to the parties in the language known to them. Both of them have understood the same. The terms and conditions of the petition are binding on the parties. The terms and conditions in the Compromise Petition are valid and proper. Hence, the same is accepted by this Court. Therefore, in view of the terms of the Compromise Petition, the above suit is compromised. The Compromise petition submitted by the parties shall be the part and parcel of the compromise decree. The office is directed to draw decree as per Compromise Petition accordingly.
