

Accused is present. Learned counsel Sri.SBA, files vakalath for accused along with bail application U/sec.436 of Cr.P.C., praying to enlarge the accused on bail for offense P/u/s.448, 504, 427 and 506 of IPC.

2. In the bail application, it is contended that the accused is innocent and not committed any offences as alleged, she is not an influential person to tamper the prosecution witness and ready to abide by the conditions imposed by this Court. Accuse also undertakes to appear before the Court whenever directed to do so. With these averments it is prayed for enlarging the said accused on bail.

3. On perusal of materials on record, it is evident that the offences alleged against the accused is punishable P/u/s.448, 504, 427 and 506 of IPC, which are bailable in nature and triable by this Court. Accused is further ready to offer surety for appearance before the Court. Hence, having regard to the nature and gravity of the offences alleged against the accused, this Court is of consideration that there should not be any legal hurdle to enlarge the accused on bail, as no purpose would be served in detaining the accused in judicial custody till the disposal of this case. Therefore, this Court considers to release the accused on bail by imposing conditions so as to safeguard the apprehensions of prosecution. Hence, the following:

ORDER

Accused is released on bail subject to following conditions.

CONDITIONS

- 1) Accused shall execute a personal bond for a sum of Rs.50,000/- with one surety for likesum.
- 2) Accused shall not commit similar offences in future.
- 3) Accused shall appear before this Court on all the dates of hearing regularly, without fail.
