

Orders on IA filed U/sec. 144(2)
of BNSS.

On perusal of the Petition averments, it is pleaded that the marriage of the petitioner No.1 with the respondent was solemnized on 29-11-2021 at Vidyabharathi Sabha Bhavan Sringeri as per Hindu rights and customs. Out of the wedlock petitioner No. 2 is born. After the marriage the petitioner No.1 started living with her husband and in laws at matrimonial home. It is further stated that the parents of the petitioner No.1 were inquiring about the welfare of the petitioner No.1 at the matrimonial home. It is further stated that the respondent and his family members started finding fault with the petitioner No.1 even with respect to the behavior of the petitioner No.2 kid.

Thereupon the respondent has taken the petitioners to the parents home of the petitioner No.1 and left them there till today without taking any care about them. It is further stated that the respondent has made false allegation against the petitioner No.1 regarding her Mental health and thereupon the parents of the petitioner No.1 had admitted her Manasa Nursing home, Shivamogga. The parents of the petitioner No. 1 have spend the entire medical bill and also till today taking care of the petitioners. Further, it is pleaded that the respondent is gainfully employed having sufficient sources to maintain the petitioners as he is working as a supervisor at Big Basket Company and earning Rs.45,000/- p.m and also having movable and immovable properties.

Section 144(2) of BNSS provides that the interim maintenance amount could be granted in favour of the wife, children and aged parents who have been neglected and refused to be maintained by the husband/father/son. Here in the case on hand the counsel for petitioners have submitted the Marriage Invitation, Marriage Certificate, Bank account statement, Legal notice, Reply notice, which shows that there is no dispute regarding the marital relationship.

Further, there is minor child born out of the wedlock of petitioner No.1 and the respondent is unable to maintain himself.

As such the petitioners have made out prima-facie case to have the interim maintenance order pending disposal of above application. Though the petitioners have sought for Rs.22,000/- p.m as interim maintenance, that much of amount could not be considered at this point of time.

Accordingly, this court proceeds to pass the following;

ORDER

The respondent is hereby directed to pay an interim maintenance of Rs.5,000/- towards petitioner No. 1 and 3,000/- towards petitioner No. 2 till disposal of the above application.

Office is hereby directed to send the copy of the above interim order along with the summons to the respondent.
