

In the Court of : SENIOR CIVIL JUDGE AND JMFC, TARIKERE.

Case No. O.S.120/2026

Smt Shobha H C Vs Channabasappa

Date : 30-07-2026

Business

: Case is Called out. Sri. NCM advocated filed power for defendant. Plaintiffs No.1 and 2 and defendant are present. Counsel for the parties are also present. The parties are identified by their respective counsel. The parties also filed documents in proof of their identity. The parties submitted that there are chances of settlement. Matter is conciliated between parties and the parties agreed for settlement of the matter amicably. The parties filed a compromise petition under Order XXIII Rule 3 of C.P.C. and prayed to decree the suit as per the compromise petition. Perused the compromise petition. The parties have stated in the compromise petition that the matter is settled between them in terms of compromise petition. The compromise petition is duly signed by the plaintiffs No.1 and 2 and defendant so also their respective counsel. Enquired with the parties about the contents of compromise petition. The contents of the petition are read over and explained to the parties and that they agreed for the same. They also submitted that they are entering into compromise with free will and consent and without any coercion, undue influence, etc. Perused the compromise petition and found that the same is lawful and not against the public policy. Hence, satisfied with the compromise petition and accordingly, the same is accepted. Hence, in view of the above, the present suit is hereby decreed in terms of the compromise petition. Office is hereby directed to draw decree as per the compromise petition.

Disposal Date

: 30-07-2026

Sd/-

SENIOR CIVIL JUDGE AND JMFC, TARIKERE