ORDER ON I.A.NO.I

Applicant/ Plaintiff has filed I.A.No.I U/Section 289 of The Karnataka Panchayath Raj Act with the prayer to dispense with the issuance of statutory notice to Defendant. Heard and perused the said application and the affidavit appended to it.

The reasons ventilated in the affidavit appears to be bonafide and clearly makes out a case of urgency for the purpose of dispensing the statutory notice period. Therefore, I am of the opinion that if notice period is not dispensed with, the very purpose of filing of the suit would be defeated. Hence, the following:

ORDER

I.A.No.I filed U/Section 289 of The Karnataka Panchayath Raj Act by the Applicant/ Plaintiff is hereby allowed.

Statutory notice period is hereby dispensed with.

ORDER ON I.A No.II

Plaintiff has filed this suit praying for the relief of permanent prohibitory injunction against the Defendant, in respect of the suit schedule properties.

I.A No.II has been filed under Order XXXIX Rules 1 & 2 of CPC praying for an order of temporary injunction against the Opponent/ Defendant restraining its labors, representatives, supporters or anybody acting on its behalf from interfering or trespassing into the suit schedule properties. Prayer is also made to grant an order of ad-interim ex-parte order of temporary injunction. The said application is accompanied with the affidavit sworn to by the Applicant/ Plaintiff detailing reasons supporting his prayer.

Perused the plaint, application in I.A No.II with affidavit and the documents produced. Heard the Learned Counsel appearing for the Applicant/ Plaintiff.

On perusal of the entire materials placed before this Court, this Court finds it appropriate to hear the Opponent/ Defendant before granting any relief.

No extraordinary ground are made out to pass an ad-interim order of temporary injunction, ex-parte. It does not appear the right of the Applicant/ Plaintiff would be defeated if notice is issued to the Opponent/ Defendant and they are heard before passing any orders on I.A.No.II. Hence, the following –

ORDER

Issue suit summons and emergent notice on I.A.No.II to the Opponent/ Defendant, if PF paid.
