

IN THE COURT OF THE J ADDL., SENIOR CIVIL JUDGE AND JMFC., AT CHAMARAJANAGAR

11.07.2026

OS 70/2022

Case called before Lok-Adalath.

The plaintiffs, defendants and their counsels are present. After the negotiation both parties have filed joint compromise petition along with copies of their Aadhar cards. The contents of compromise petition is read over to both parties. Both parties are agreed the contents of compromise petition. Hence, the compromise entered between both parties is accepted. Accordingly, in the interest of justice I proceed to pass the following order.

ORDER

Joint Compromise petition filed by the both parties is hereby allowed.

Accordingly, the suit of the plaintiffs is decreed as per terms and conditions of joint compromise petition.

The joint compromise petition is treated as preliminary decree.

Office is hereby directed to draw final decree.

In view of that, this suit is disposed as settled.

sd/-

Judicial conciliator

sd/-

Advocate conciliator