

13 MISC DJ ADJ 640/25
PRADEEP CHHIKARA Vs. KRISHNA

01.11.2025

Present: Ms. Yogita Ahlawat, Ld. Counsel for Applicant.

During the course of hearing, Ld. Counsel for the applicant submits that the documents were deposited with some bank, which were misplaced and therefore, again, certificate is being sought.

The aforesaid facts are not mentioned anywhere in the application and there is a difference in issuance of certificate and issuance of duplicate certificate.

With these observations, giving liberty to the counsel to provide factual details, the present application is disposed off.

Ahlmad is hereby directed to ensure that a proper register is maintained by him, indicating the date when the court fees was returned and whether the certificate was issued by the court.

Non compliance will be viewed very seriously and a complaint will be made against the Ahlmad in case of non compliance.

Reader of the court is directed to ensure that a copy of this order is served on the Ahlmad against proper acknowledgment and also prepare a separate file for the same.

File be consigned to Record Room.
