Cr. No.140/2026

.. Respondent/Complainant

Petition dated 11.08.2026 through e-filed and U/s. 482 of BNSS seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners/accused.

This petition came before this Court for final hearing today in the presence of Thiru.S.Sivabalan, the learned Counsel for the petitioners and of Thiru.T.Sivachandran, the learned Public Prosecutor for the respondent and heard either side and on perusing all the records, this Court delivered the following.....

ORDER

This petitioners/accused (A1 to A5) seeks anticipatory bail for the alleged offence U/s . 191(2), 126(2), 296(b), 115(2), 351(2) of BNS Act.

2. The learned Counsel appearing for the petitioners/accused (A1 to A5) would submit that the petitioner did not involve in this case incident as alleged by prosecution; the petitioners are college students; due to wordy quarrel between the parties; false complaint has been foisted against the petitioner; if the petitioners are released on anticipatory bail, they will abide the conditions of this Court and that they may be released on anticipatory bail.

3. Per contra, the learned Public Prosecutor contended that due to wordy quarrel between the both parties, on 6.8.2026 the accused unlawfully assembled and wrongfully restrained the defacto complainant abused him in filthy language and attacked him with hands and criminally intimidated him; if the petitioner is released on anticipatory bail, he will tamper the witnesses and hamper the investigation and that petition may be dismissed.

4. Upon hearing both sides arguments and as per the FIR contents, it is seen that due to wordy quarrel, at the time of alleged incident, the petitioners used obscene words towards the defacto complainant and assaulted him. It is fairly conceded on prosecution that no any previous case is reported against them. Admittedly injured was discharged from the hospital. He further reported that FIR is registered against the defacto complainant.

Considering the above circumstances and in the interest of justice, this Court is inclined to release the petitioners / accused (A1 to A5) on anticipatory bail on the following conditions:

1. That the petitioners/accused (A1 to A5) in the event of their arrest or surrender before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Oddanchatram within 15 days from the date of this order and on such arrest or surrender the petitioner is ordered to be enlarged on anticipatory bail on their each executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties for a like sum; if the petitioners/accused not surrendered within 15 days from the date of this order this anticipatory bail shall stands cancelled automatically.
2. The sureties shall affix their photograph and Left Thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar Card or Bank Pass Book to ensure their identity.
3. On considering that the petitioners/accused (A1 to A5) are college student and they shall appear and sign before the respondent Police station daily at 5.30 p.m. for a period of 2 weeks without fail.
4. The petitioners/accused (A1 to A5) shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.
5. The petitioners/accused (A1 to A5) shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

6. On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on anticipatory bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K. Shaji Vs. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560].
7. If the petitioners/accused (A1 to A5) thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under section 269 of BNS.

Pronounced by me in open Court this the 13th day of August 2026.

Principal Sessions Judge, Dindigul.
