

The counsel for the appellant has filed the memo stating that by oversight criminal revision is filed against the Judgment and order of sentence instead of criminal appeal. Further, he prayed to convert criminal revision to criminal appeal by passing necessary order. The record would show that petitioner is before this court against the Judgment and order of sentence passed by the trial court and praying to stay the operation of sentence. As in criminal revision court is having limited power than criminal appeal. Accordingly, memo is allowed. It is directed the office to convert this criminal revision to criminal appeal and to give separate number.
