

Case called out. The learned counsel for complainant is present and files memo with 2 documents.

PW-1 is present and got marked Ex C 8 and 9. Heard.

Perused the complaint. Sworn statement affidavit and documents produced.

On perusal of the materials on record it appears that complainant has complied the ingredients of section 138 of N.I. Act. It appears that there are sufficient prima-facie materials to proceed against the accused for the offence punishable under section 138 of N.I.Act. Hence the following:

ORDER

Office is directed to register the case against the accused U/Sec.138 of N.I.Act and enter this case in Reg. No.III and issue summons to the accused along with copy of complaint through speed post, if P.F paid
