

OS No. 273/2025

Plaintiffs No.1 to 4, defendant and their counsel present.

The parties are identified by their respective counsel. Both plaintiff and defendant's counsel submit that the matter is settled amicably between the parties. That plaintiffs and defendant have agreed to get partitioned the suit properties amicably. Accordingly, file a joint compromise petition U/O 23 Rule 3 of CPC.

The plaintiffs and defendant admit the terms of the compromise and their signatures on the compromise petition. The plaintiffs and defendant are read over and explained the terms of compromise. They are read over the property numbers and extents allotted to them as per the compromise petition. Plaintiffs and defendant admit the same and state that they have got settled the matter as per the terms of the joint compromise petition.

The compromise reached at appears to be voluntary and in the interest of the parties.

Hence, for acceptance of the joint compromise petition.

Call on 02.05.2026.

(Smt. Padmashri A.Munnoli)
Senior Civil Judge and
J.M.F.C., Harihara.