

Plaintiffs and defendant counsel present.

Heard, both the sides on the joint compromise petition U/O 23 Rule 3 of CPC on 28.04.2026 and perused the material on record.

On 28.04.2026, the plaintiffs and defendant had filed a joint compromise petition U/O 23 Rule 3 of CPC. The contents of the compromise petition were read over and explained to the parties. They had admitted the terms of compromise.

Perused the compromise petition and the documents produced along with the plaint. The compromise reached at appears to be in the interest of parties and is voluntary and not opposed to any public policy.

Hence, the joint compromise petition filed U/O 23 Rule 3 of CPC is hereby accepted.

The suit is disposed off as settled as per the terms of the joint compromise petition.

Draw a final decree in terms of the joint compromise petition.

(Padmashri A.Munnoli)
Senior Civil Judge and
J.M.F.C., Harihara.