REASONS

8. Point No.1: In order to prove the above point the petitioner is examined as PW-1 by filing an affidavit in lieu of his examination-in-chief. PW.1 deposed that, his mother by name Hameera Bi W/o. Late Mahammed Hussain Sab died on 05.09.1975 at his residence of Ladwa Oni, Harihar Taluk, Davanagere District. Due to inadvertence his family members have not intimated the date of death of his mother to the respondent office and when the petitioner has applied for his mother's death certificate, the respondent office had issued non-availability certificate stating that, the said death of Hameera Bi W/o. Late Mahammed Hussain Sab was not entered in the register maintained by the respondent's office. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted during arguments that the death certificate of petitioner's mother is required to produce before concerned authority to change the khatha of immovable property and for other purposes. If the said death is not registered, the petitioner will be put to great hardship and on the other hand there will be no hardship or inconvenience would be caused to the respondent. There is no rival claim either by the respondent or by any person though the petitioner has summoned the interested persons through public notice published in the daily newspapers. The petitioner has filed his affidavit and deposed on oath. There is no reasons to disbelieve the evidence of petitioner. Though the respondent has served with notice, the PW.1 is not cross examined. Ex.P.2 and Ex.P.3 shows that the petitioner is the son of the said Hameera Bi W/o. Late Mahammed Hussain Sab. The evidence of P.W.1 is unchallenged.
