

Order below Exh.1 in M.A.M.A.C.P. No.19/2023

[CNR No. MHNS010036052023]

The applicant has moved an application to withdraw the amount kept in Fixed Deposit vide award passed in M.A.C.P.No.592/2020 dated 13.08.2022. It is contended by the applicant that as per the compromise in between applicant and insurance company in MACP No.592/2020, award was passed on 13.8.2022 and an amount of Rs.1,50,000/- was kept in Fixed deposit in Indian Bank, Nashik Branch vide Receipt No. 047686. It is also contended by the applicant that after the death of her husband, no earning member is in their family. She is in need of Rs.1,70,000/- for her medical expenses. Hence, prayed to allow her to withdraw fixed deposit amount along with interest.

2. The applicant has produced on record photo copies of compromise pursis in MACP No. 592/2020, fix deposit receipt, Adhar Card and original estimate letter issued by Navkar Multispeciality Hospital reflecting medical expenses amount in between Rs.1,65,000/- to Rs.1,70,000/-.

3. Report was called of Assistant Superintendent with respect to the investment. He has submitted that Rs.4,50,000/- was deposited in the court. Out of Rs.4,50,000/-, F.D. of Rs.1,50,000/- has been made as per the order of the Court. The said fixed deposit was made for three years.

4. Considering the report of the Assistant Superintendent as well as contentions of the applicant, it is seen that applicant is in need of the amount for her medical expenses. Considering the grounds I proceed to pass following order.

O R D E R

1. Application is allowed.
2. Assistant Superintendent to break Fixed Deposit and sum of Rs.1,50,000/- along with accrued interest be handed over to the applicant by RTGS or account payee cheque.
3. In view of it, the present application is disposed off.

Nashik.

Date : 27.06.2023

(V.S.Malkalpatte-Reddy)
Member, M.A.C.T., Nashik.