

Case called out.

ORDERS ON IA NO-I

The plaintiff filed the present suit seeking the relief of partition and separate possession and other consequential reliefs against the defendants in respect of the suit schedule property.

2. The plaintiff also maintained an application u/o 39 rule 1 and 2 r/w/s 151 of CPC seeking for grant an ad-interim order of temporary injunction against the defendant No.1 by restraining him from alienating, transferring or creating any charge over the suit schedule property till the disposal of the suit.

3. In support of her case, the plaintiff has furnished Notarized copy of G.Tree, RTC extract, Mutation extract and E-Khata extracts to prove her prima-facie case.

4. The plaintiff has got prima-facie case in her favour and balance of convenience lies in favour of the plaintiff's in the event of alienating the property by defendants, the plaintiff's will not be in a position to realize the fruits of the decree and there will be no property available for partition. Under these circumstances, I am of the opinion that, at this stage the plaintiff has made out a case to grant an ex-parte ad-interim order against the defendant No.1 restraining him from alienating the suit schedule property until next date of hearing. Hence, this court pass the following:

::ORDER::

Issue ex-parte ad-interim temporary injunction against the defendant No.1 restraining him from alienating the suit schedule property until next date of hearing.

The plaintiff comply Order 39 Rule 3(a) of CPC.

Issue TI Order after compliance.

Issue suit summons and TI notice on IA No-I to the defendants. R/by:
