

Case called out. Petitioners and respondents present. Both counsels present and filed compromise petition U/o 23 Rule 3 r/w sec.151 of CPC and submits that parties have entered into compromise out of their free will.

The terms and conditions of the compromise petition was read over and explained to them. Both parties admitted its execution and their signatures affixed on it. Both parties identified their counsels vice versa both the counsels identified their parties. Both parties admitted that they have compromised the matter out of their own free will without any force undue influence coercion without any fear and furnished notarized copies of Aadhaar cards.

Heard and perused. The said compromise is not opposed to any law for the time being inforce. Hence there is no hesitation to accept the compromise.

Accordingly, compromise petition is accepted. The petition filed by the petitioners is decreed in terms of compromise petition.

Draw final decree accordingly.

Addl. Civil Judge and JMFC.,
Honnali.