

2 SC 210/2016
STATE Vs. MOHD. ABBAS ALI AND ANOTHER
FIR No. 22/2012
(Khajuri Khas)

30.01.2026

Present: Ms. Parul Singh, Ld. Addl. PP for the State.
Convict with Id. Proxy Counsel Sh. Nirbhay Saxena.
Sh. Sunil Rathor, Sh. Sagar Rathor and Smt. Jyoti Rathor who are the nephew and sister-in-law of the deceased respectively are present in the court.
Insp. Rakesh, SHO PS Khajuri Khas is also present through VC.

On LDOH, a victim impact report was summoned through SHO concerned.

However, it is submitted by Insp. Rakesh, SHO PS Khajuri Khas since no real family member of the deceased victim could be traced, he is unable to file any victim impact report in the present case.

Sh. Sunil Rathor, Sh. Sagar Rathor and Smt. Jyoti Rathor who are the relatives of the deceased and present in the court have also stated that though the deceased was survived by his wife and two daughters, however, they had already left the deceased much prior to the incident in question and were living separately, though, no divorce between the deceased and his wife had taken place. It is further informed by the relatives of the deceased present in the court that they also do not have the knowledge and the whereabouts of the widow and daughters of the deceased and can also not provide their address.

In view of the above said position, it is apparent that for want of the address of the widow and daughters of the deceased victim, the victim impact report cannot be filed in the present case.

Accordingly, the court shall now proceed to hear the parties on the quantum of sentence.

However, at this stage, the Ld. Proxy for the convict has requested for a short adjournment stating that the main counsel is held up in another urgent matter in Saket District court.

Considering the submission, put up for argument on the point of quantum of sentence on 19.02.2026.

(BALWINDER SINGH)
ASJ (FTC)/North-East/KKD Courts/
Delhi/30.01.2026