Nonailable warrants of accused received back with the report that accused served through his father. Case called several times since morning but accused did not appear in the court. Therefore, this court is satisfied that accused is knowingly evading the service and intentionally is not appearing in the present case. So, proclamation under Section 84 of BNSS against the accused be issued, requiring the accused to appear in the court on 29.10.2025.

The serving constable is directed to publish/execute the proclamation as under:-

1. It shall be publicly read in some conspicuous place of the town or village in which the accused ordinarily resides;
2. It shall be affixed to some conspicuous part of the house homestead in which the accused ordinarily resides or to some conspicuous place of such town or village.
3. A copy of thereof shall be affixed to some conspicuous part of the court-house.

The serving constable is further directed to effect the proclamation on or before 20.09.2025 and to appear on

Jagtar Singh Vs Sandeep Kaur Nact 366 2020

Present: Sh. J.K. Karkara Advocate for complainant.

Correct address of accused not filed. Learned counsel for the complainant has suffered statement that accused is deliberately evading the process of court and this last known address of the accused and he has no other address of the accused except the address mentioned in the complaint is available with the complainant and prayer has been made to procure the presence of accused by way of using coercive method.

In view of statement of learned counsel for the complainant, this court is satisfied that accused has due knowledge regarding the pendency of the present and accused is intentionally evading the process of summons and presence of the accused cannot be procured by this method and coercive method is required to be adopted for service of accused. So, proclamation under Section 84 of BNSS against the accused be issued, requiring the accused to appear in the court on 23.04.2025.

The serving constable is directed to publish/execute the proclamation as under:-

1. It shall be publicly read in some conspicuous place of the town or village in which the accused ordinarily resides;
2. It shall be affixed to some conspicuous part of the house homestead in which the accused ordinarily resides or to some conspicuous place of such town or village.
3. A copy of thereof shall be affixed to some conspicuous part of the court-house.

The serving constable is further directed to effect the proclamation on or before 25.10.2024 and to appear on 25.10.2024 for recording his statement regarding the due compliance of the orders of the Court, failing which action as per law shall be taken against him.

Present: Sh. Prince Dhanjal, APP for the State.
Sh. G.K.Garg, counsel for accused Rajinder Kumar.

Heard on application for extension of time to applicant Rajinder Kumar Sofat to get his passport. It is averred in the application that application to apply and make passport was allowed by the court vide order dated 17.09.2024 and granted three weeks time to apply and make his passport. However, passport authorities gave long date for appointment to the applicant and due to said reason, passport of the applicant not issued by the Passport authorities to the applicant.

Learned APP for the State orally opposed the application on the ground that sufficient time was granted to the applicant to apply his passport but applicant intentionally failed to do so.

As per order dated 17.09.2024, permission was granted to applicant to apply his passport. The submissions submitted by the applicant in the application are considered and in view of the directions given vide order dated 17.09.2025 passed by the undersigned, the application for extension of time to apply passport is allowed.

Shashi Jindal Vs Ritu Jindal Nact 109 2022

Present: Sh. Rajesh Jallu, counsel for the complainant.

Non bailable warrants of accused received back with the report that house of accused was locked. Perusal of file shows that accused was summoned in the present case on 26.04.2022 and presence of the accused could not effected despite adopting various mode of services. Therefore, this court is satisfied that accused is knowingly evading the service and intentionally is not appearing in the present case. So, proclamation under Section 84 of BNSS against the accused be issued, requiring the accused to appear in the court on 23.04.2025.

The serving constable is directed to publish/execute the proclamation as under:-

1. It shall be publicly read in some conspicuous place of the town or village in which the accused ordinarily resides;

2. It shall be affixed to some conspicuous part of the house homestead in which the accused ordinarily resides or to some conspicuous place of such town or village.

3. A copy of thereof shall be affixed to some conspicuous part of the court-house.

The serving constable is further directed to effect the proclamation on or before 23.04.2025 and to appear on 23.04.2025 for recording his statement regarding the due compliance of the orders of the Court, failing which action as per law shall be taken against him.
