

Parties have already filed joint compromise petitioner U/order 23 Rule 3 of CPC.

The terms of compromise petition is already read over to parties in the presence of advocate and they have agreed to terms of compromise.

The terms of compromise appears to be lawful and there is no impediment in accepting the same and accordingly I Proceed to pass following;

:: ORDERS ::

The compromise petition is hereby allowed.

Office is directed to draw final decree in terms of compromise petition.

Compromise petition shall be treated as part and parcel of compromise decree.

Senior Civil Judge and JMFC, Bantwal.