JMFC., PUTTUR. D.K.,

DATED THIS THE 20th DAY OF FEBRUARY 2026

:PRESENT:

Sri.Devaraj.Y.H., B.A.L., L.L.B.,
1st ADDL. SR. CIVIL JUDGE & JMFC.,
PUTTUR.

OS.No. 12/2025

Plaintiff	:	Kumari Sinchana
		Vs.
Defendant	:	Avinash Jain and Others

IA no.7/2025

Applicant	:	Kumari Sinchana
		Vs.
Opponents	:	Avinash Jain and Others

ORDERS PASSED ON THE APPLICATION FILED BY THE PLAINTIFF UNDER ORDER 7 RULE 14(3) AND SEC.151
OF CPC

The present IA filed by the plaintiff and prays to permit the plaintiff to produce the documents mentioned in the IA by condoning the delay in filing of the same.

2. In support of the IA counsel for the plaintiff filed memo of facts and stated that the documents which are listed in the IA are very relevant to be consider for elucidation of the dispute and issues involved in the presence and the said documents have not been produced earlier due to inadvertence. Hence prays to allow the IA.

3. Counsel for the defendant no.4 filed objections and stated that the IA filed by the plaintiff is not maintainable either in law or on facts of the case. Further stated that prior to filing of this suit plaintiff holding custody of all the documents as mentioned in the IA and he has not mentioned or explained any reasons for delaying producing the said documents. Further it is stated that case of the plaintiff is based on judgment and other relevant documents and without custody of the same it is not possible to prepare the plaint. It is stated that there is delay in filing of the IA and no proper explanation has been made in the IA to condone the delay. Hence prays to dismiss IA with cost.

4. Perused the IA and objections as well the other material particulars available on record. Below mentioned points arisen for my consideration.

POINTS

1. Whether the plaintiff made out grounds to consider the IA no.7 filed under Order 7 Rule 14(3) and Section 151 of CPC and grant the relief as prayed for ?

2. What order?

5. Heard counsel for both parties. Perused the IA, objections and other relevant material particulars available on record, My findings to the above points is as hereunder.,

Point No.1: In the Affirmative.

Point No.2: As per final order for the following:

REASONS

6. Point No.1: The present IA has been filed by the counsel for the plaintiff and prays to permit the plaintiff to produce the documents which are annexed with the IA. On perusal of the IA, it clarifies that plaintiff intends to produced certified copy of order sheet, judgment and decree passed in OS no.11/15, amended plaint, valuation slip, written statement, order sheet issues and depositions of the respective parties recorded in OS no.116/2007. The documents which the plaintiff intends to produce certified copies obtained from the competent Court of law as such this Court opines that it is essential to permit the plaintiff to produce the said documents which are annexed with the IA in order to prove their case. It is obvious that the defendants have got rights to cross examine the plaintiff with respect to the documents produced in her evidence, as such no harm or injustice is going to be caused to the defendants if the plaintiff is permitted to produce the documents. plaintiff have made out grounds to consider the IA and grant the relief as prayed for. With all these discussions, I proceed to answer pint no.1 in the Affirmative.

7. Point No.2: As discussed above in point No.1, I proceed to pass the following.,

ORDER

IA No.7 filed under Order 7 rule 14(3) and Sec.151 of CPC is hereby allowed with cost of Rs.100/-.

Delay condoned. Plaintiff permitted to produce the documents which are annexed with the IA.

(Dictated to the Stenographer directly on the computer, typed by her, print out taken by her, corrected, signed and then the Order pronounced in the open court this the 20th Day of February 2026)
