

RAJESH AGARWAL Vs.
M/S JSK HOTELS PRIVATE LIMITED

18.02.2026

Present: Ld. Counsel for Plaintiff (through VC).
Ld. Counsel for Defendant (through VC).

Counsel for the defendant seeks a short adjournment submitting that defendant was out of town and replication was furnished to him day before yesterday only. Thus, he seeks sometime to file affidavit of admission-denial of documents. However, he fairly concedes that no document as such has been filed by the plaintiff alongwith the replication and there is no legal impediment in filing of affidavit of documents admission-denial.

Adjournment plea is vehemently opposed by counsel for the plaintiff. Counsel for the plaintiff submits that defendant is unnecessarily adopting dilatory tactics.

Still, in the interest of justice, considering the request of counsel for defendant, matter stands adjourned subject to costs of Rs.10,000/- to be paid to the plaintiff.

Let affidavit of documents admission-denial be filed by both the parties after mutually exchanging the same well before the next date of hearing.

To come up for admission-denial of documents and framing of issues in the matter on 25.05.2026.
