

14-03-2024

For Orders

Heard counsel for the plaintiff.
Perused the contents of the plaint, I.A.No.I affidavits sworn in and documents.

The present suit is for partition, declaration, possession, permanent injunction and allied reliefs. It is well settled principles of law that, at the time of the granting the Ex-parte order, a detail scrutiny of the facts and case is not necessary. The plaintiff has to made out the prima-facie case that the defendants No.12 and 13 are alienating the suit schedule properties. Therefore, at this juncture prima-facie there are no sufficient grounds to grant an ad-interim ex-parte temporary injunction as prayed for. Hence, I proceed to pass the following:

:: O R D E R ::

Issue emergent notice on I.A.No.I to defendants No.12 and 13 and suit summons to all the defendants.

Call on: 31-05-2024.

II Addl. Senior Civil Judge, Bengaluru Rural District, Bengaluru.