

Dated 30.08.2024.

Complainant absent. No representation. A perused of record shows that the case was registered in the year 2018, PW1 was examined in chief and being adjourned for X-PW1. At that stage the case is transferred to this court. but PW1 has not attended the court for several adjournments deposit conditional orders passed by this court as such his evidence was closed and case adjourned for further evidence on his behalf, thereafter complainant vide evidence was closed due to non appearance and adjourned for 313 crPC examination of accused but as due to his obscene NBW was ordered and the complainant failed to pay process though conditional orders passed including a specific condition as "for dismissal". In the meanwhile the counsel for complainant report that the complainant was expired but no steps taken. For all the above reasons no further adjournments shall be granted. Hence the case is dismissed. Petitioner present. She filed memo stating that she has compromised the matter out of court with the intervention of adduce. The said memo is recorded. Counsel of petitioner present. respondent absent No representation. The memo is recorded. The DVC is dismissed as Not Pressed.

PJCJ