

CC NI ACT / 13523/2026 RAGINI BANSAL Vs. P SANAL KUMAR

04.06.2026

Fresh file received by way of assignment. It be checked and registered as per rules.

Proceedings are being conducted through hybrid manner.

Present: Mr. Pawan Kumar, Ld. Counsel for the complainant.

In view of the decision of Hon'ble Supreme Court in Sanjabij Tari v. Kishore S.Borcar & Anr, Crl. Appeal No. 1755 of 2010, the pre cognizance notice upon the accused u/s 223 BNSS is hereby dispensed with.

On the basis of the material available on record, since there exists a prima facie case against the accused for the offence Section U/s 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, hence cognizance is taken.

In light of the decision of full bench of Hon'ble Supreme Court of India cited as “A. C. Narayan v. State of Maharashtra & Anr.” (2014) 11 SCC 790, this Court is of the considered opinion that there is no need to examine the complainant at this pre-summoning stage for the purpose of issuance of process against the accused persons.

At this stage, arguments on point of summoning heard. I have perused the complaint, evidence affidavit and the documents on record.

Prima facie, it appears that the cheque in question was issued by the accused person (s) in favour of the complainant in discharge of legal liability. The cheque in question was dishonoured on presentation. Legal notice was served upon the accused person(s). Despite the service of the notice, accused person (s) have failed to make payment within the stipulated time. There are sufficient grounds for proceeding against the accused person (s).

Accordingly, let summons be issued to accused person (s) through all modes on filing of PF along with copy of complaint within 15 days, returnable for NDOH.

The complainant is directed to place on record the tracking report of Speed Post/Registered AD on the next date of hearing positively.

Put up for appearance of accused person (s) and bail proceedings on 10.09.2026.
